SUBJECT: GOOD FRIDAY PROCESSING

The Chicago Mercantile Exchange (“CME”) and the Options Clearing Corporation’s (“OCC”) settlement banks are open for business on Good Friday, April 19, 2019. The options exchanges, along with OCC observe this holiday and will be closed for business. However, OCC will be conducting limited settlement activities to support the processing of Variations generated by the CME.

Below is information regarding weekly expiration processing on Thursday, April 18, 2019 and the OCC/CME cross margin settlements on Friday April 19, 2019.

Expiration Processing

Normal expiration timeframes will apply on Thursday, April 18, 2019.

EED / DNED	6:00 pm CT
Ex by Ex Authorization	8:00 pm CT

All cash settled indices will be settled on Monday, April 22, 2019 and all equity settlements will be settled on Tuesday, April 23, 2019.

Cross Margin Settlements

On Friday April 19, 2019, OCC will process the CME End-of-Day (EOD) Variation received the night of April 18, 2019. OCC will process debit settlement instructions for Variation amounts owed by a Clearing Member, and credit settlement instructions for Variation amounts due to a Clearing Member, but only to the extent that the credit exceeds the amount of any net settlement pay owed to OCC/CME for settlement Monday April 22, 2019 as will be reflected on the Account Summary by CMO report. Any portion of the credit that was withheld for deficits will be deposited to the Clearing Member’s cash account in ENCORE. No Collateral transactions or cash withdrawal requests will be accepted or processed on Good Friday.

CME will not be generating a Mid-Day Variation on Friday, April 19, 2019.

If applicable, OCC will process the CME EOD Variation received Friday night April 19, 2019 on Monday, April 22, 2019.

The CME EOD Variations mentioned above will not be reflected on the Account Summary by CMO report or Start of Day Cash Settlement Breakdown report. OCC will contact all impacted OCC/CME cross margin Clearing Members to provide debit and credit amounts processed from the Variations.
